

please deny the banking institutions petition to use our phone lines for there advertising purposes. I pay for the use of my phone lines and am totally against the private sector using my phone against my wishes.